Matthew 1.23

Galatians 1:3-4

An open book with a dark red cover is shown from a top-down perspective. The pages are white and contain faint, illegible text. Overlaid on the pages is a large, bold, black text block. The text is a quote from the Bible, specifically Titus 2:13-14. The quote is split across two lines, with the first line ending in a semicolon and the second line starting with a bolded phrase. The background of the book pages is slightly blurred, making the overlaid text stand out.

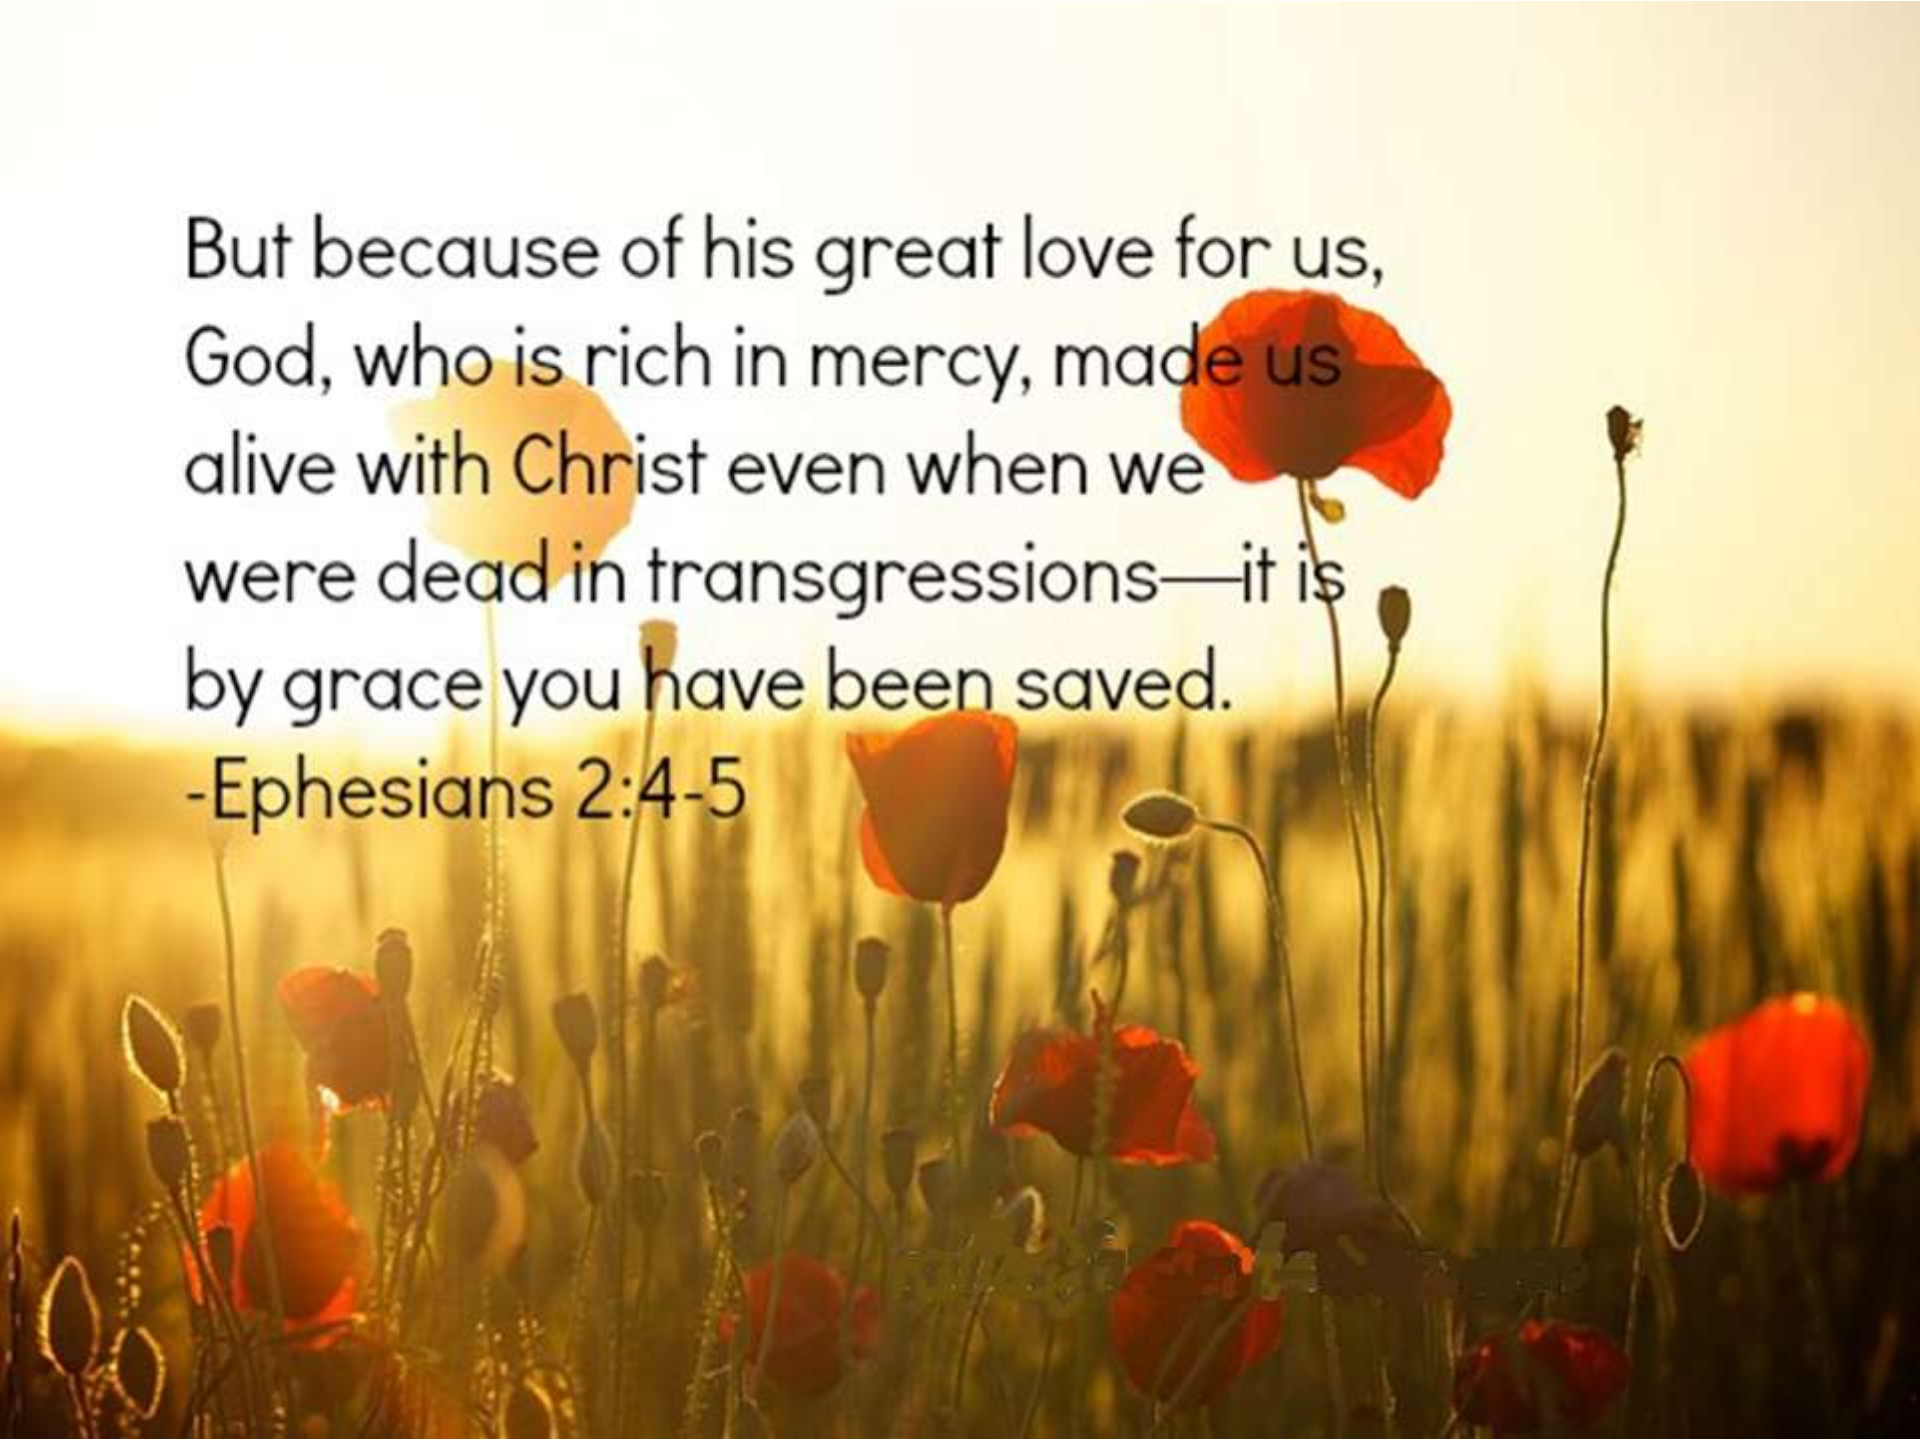

¹³ Looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Savior Jesus Christ; ¹⁴ Who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works.

Titus 2:13-14

The word "Give" is on the top line, "of" is on the second line, "Yourself" is on the third line, and "Y" is on the fourth line, all centered over the hands.

A field of red poppies is shown at sunset. The sun is low on the horizon, creating a warm, golden glow that illuminates the scene. The poppies are in various stages of bloom, with some fully open and others as buds. The background is a soft, out-of-focus field of tall grasses or reeds, also bathed in the golden light of the setting sun. The overall mood is peaceful and serene.

But because of his great love for us,
God, who is rich in mercy, made us alive with Christ even when we were dead in transgressions—it is by grace you have been saved.
