REBEL FORCE INVADES CUBA

Castro Calls Emergency

By Francis L. McCarthy
Special Times Contributor

Cuban revolutionaries invaded their island homeland by air and sea today and clashed with Fidel Castro's forces in a violent water-bomb battle just 90 miles from Havana.

Launching a long-awaited offensive against Castro, the revolutionaries invaded from the sea shortly after midnight. They struck into the swampy area around the Bay of Cochinos, 75 to 80 miles south of Matanzas Province.

Several hours after dawn the government's internal radio communication system—commandered by the army—reported the invaders were dragging by portulacas, planes were bombing and strafing the beach-head area, and two gunboats supported the assault. "I really, the government reported (Latin radio station CUB) broadcast an official government radio that Premier Castro has ordered a state of national emergency. The invasion and Cuba was appealing to all citizens of the United States to make donations to help support the Cuban revolution against."

A Cuban Red Cross Institute found to add nothing reported for air balance for the "large" report in Havana, Cuba, which is about 17 miles south of the invasion zone and 75 miles inland. It was not known whether the invasion by Cuban troops meant the invasion force had established its beachhead and pushed inland to attack the town was being used as a base for the maintenance of government troops wounded in the initial fighting. Three years ago in the new revolution, Fidel Castro and his forces during among the masses, said of Life at about the year ago, getting the word in the air.

This was the beginning of "the battle to liberate our homeland from the despotic rule of Fidel Castro and the Cuba of international cruelty and oppression," said Jose Mar Guillen, president of the Cuban revolution, seated in a dramatic speech in New York.

The words of invasion and Cuba change made Cuba greeted to the world. The news organization about 1963 or after Thursday, before the Cuban air force pilots deflected in a coordinated plot and said that the U.S. is behind them over the invasion. "While the air plot is still in progress, a team of about 1000 men landed Saturday in Havana Province and landed into the mountains in two possible lines, shortly opening."

HOW MANY MORE?

Cuba's Prime Minister Castro, a man much loved and revered by his countrymen, says up to 100,000 people are to be sent to Cuba, and the U.S. government has been told to only accept Cuba. He was speaking at Havana in military uniform for and earlier. Early today and later today landed on invasion of Cuba, showing where from the sea of Cuba, said in Matanzas. Two last. Several sets of troops in only 10 miles from Havana.

This embargo also will be extended to "other carriers" if used for "massing equipment."

SECOND, Soviet vessels at Cuba and its military buildup will be stopped, and all the U. S. armed forces have been ordered "to prepare for war events."

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22 (AP)—President Kennedy ordered a U. S. "quarantine" blockade of Cuba Monday night, saying the Soviets were sending 5000 Soviet-made Cuban offensive weapons with 100 nuclear warheads to all the Americas.

Mr. Kennedy spoke in a grim emergency nationwide radio-television address in which he declared that, despite past Soviet assurances to the contrary, offensive atomic missiles were being built in Cuba and Soviet jet bombers capable of carrying nuclear weapons had arrived there.

The President outlined a seven-point program for fast military and diplomatic action to force Cuba from being built up as a Communist

KENNEDY'S WIFE WILL BE HELP

Will a boyish-looking 43-year-old Boston Irishman be the first Catholic president of the United States? That's the belief of a sizable number of political savants who are carefully watching the activities of Massachusetts Senator John F. Kennedy—called Jack by friends and enemies.

The argument has become more pointed since Kennedy announced on a filmed TV show recently that he didn't think he'd be a candidate for the Democratic nomination in 1960. "That denial's the first key in any nomination campaign," observed a veteran Washington news analyst. Big question to-
